

Dear expectant parents,
We are honored and truly grateful you have taken the time to get to know us. We strongly admire your courage and the love you have for your precious baby. Although we have not met, we pray for you everyday. We know God has a plan for us all.

Erica & Carlos

About us

We met shortly after high school. We were friends before we started dating. We have been together 12 years and married 3 1/2 years. We love adventure, camping, vacationing, the beach, hiking, game nights, sports, and doing anything outdoors. We attend church on Sundays and are part of the prayer team. Carlos is an aircraft mechanic lead technician. Erica is an office manager at a primary care office. She was previously a medical assistant and currently in school for nursing. We share our home with our three loving and playful dogs, Max, Lilo, and Delilah. They love children and cannot wait to meet their new sibling.

our family

We both grew up in Tucson and come from big families. We both have five siblings and are both the middle child. Between both families we have five nephews and two nieces that we love as our own. Our family is thrilled for the added blessing and are looking forward to helping us out in any way possible. Family is everything!

Carlos about Erica

Erica is an incredible and loving person who is outgoing and adventurous. She is a natural with children and will be an amazing mother one day. She is a hard worker and strives to succeed. She is smart, loyal, passionate, and has a heart of gold. She cheers for the Arizona Cardinals and U of A Wildcats. She is a woman of God and enjoys helping others. She is a strong supporter and a great listener. She is my rock that brings me happiness. I am blessed to have her as my wife.

Erica about Carlos

Carlos is a fun loving, hardworking, passionate, and supportive husband. He stands up for what he believes in and has a pure heart. His love for God amazes me. He is active and enjoys playing baseball as it is his favorite sport. When it comes to football, he roots for the Cowboys and U of A. What I admire most is his ability to show kindness to anyone. I appreciate that he encourages me to do better and follow my dreams. Watching his interactions with children proves the wonderful father he will be someday. His smile melts my heart and is an added bonus to the amazing man he is.

Our Promise To You

After several failed attempts and four pregnancy losses, God has revealed to us adoption is the right choice. We are very excited to welcome a baby into our family. Our promise is to raise a child in a loving home filled with peace, joy, and lots of laughter. We promise to teach them good values, to let them have a voice and feel heard, to be supportive, and be their biggest cheerleaders.

Thank you and God bless.
